

2019 solar container international summit

Overview

With hundreds of high-caliber attendees, the event covered the latest developments in global solar markets, module technology, how the ITC stepdown will impact project finance, distributed solar emerging markets, and much more. The Clean Coalition was a partner organization for this event, which took place May 14-15, 2019 in Scottsdale, AZ. The objective of this summit is to bring all the relevant stakeholders and key international players on same platform to discuss key Issues, Challenges & business opportunities in the solar energy. Last month, nearly 20,000 solar and clean energy professionals from around the world traveled to sunny Salt Lake City for the 2019 Solar Power International conference.
